Flexibility to suit your travel style. We offer both scheduled, small-group departures and custom journeys so that you can choose which works best for you. Not finding exactly what you are looking for? Let us customize a journey to fulfill your travel dreams.

Customer service that goes the extra mile. Having trouble finding flights that work for you? From your first call, we guide you through choosing your trip, provide advice on preparing for your adventure, and hold your hand until you return home.

DAY 1: Ho Chi Minh City

Activity Overview: Walking
Activity Level: Easy
Activity Length: 1-2 hours on city streets

Upon arrival of your international flight to Ho Chi Minh City, you will be met at the airport and transferred to our hotel. Following a lunch together with our guide, we set out to explore the city.

First, we pay a visit to the Fine Art Museum in Saigon - the best place to see a varied collection of works by Vietnamese artists, both historical and contemporary. We then explore the winding alleyways of the Cholon district (Chinatown), starting at Cha Tam Church and Chua Ong Pagoda, a stunning example of Chinese-inspired architecture. By foot, we head down a traditional herbal medicine street for a closer look at how locals use herbal remedies for everything from headaches to energy boosts.

Our next stop is the Bitexco Building—a glittering example of modern architecture in the city. As the fifth-highest building in Asia, the views from the rooftop cafe are unrivalled. Here, we enjoy a leisurely cocktail as the sun dips below the horizon.

This evening, we’ll gather with our guide and fellow guests for a welcome dinner at an acclaimed restaurant featuring the best of traditional Vietnamese specialties.

Accommodation: Rex Hotel, Ho Chi Minh City
Meals: L, D

DAY 2: Cu Chi Tunnels; Transfer to Hué

Activity Overview: Walking on dirt paths and city streets
Activity Level: Easy
Activity Length: 2 hours walking; 1.5 hours speed boat; 1.5 hours driving

This morning we’ll depart early for our one and a half hour journey down the Saigon River by speedboat, gaining a unique perspective of our surroundings and avoiding the congestion of the roads. Watching the city fade into the background, we enter the countryside and eventually reach the Cu Chi tunnels.

During the Vietnam War, the Vietcong dug an extensive tunnel complex that served as a sanctuary in the fight against American forces. Part of the complex has been left in its original state. For those who are comfortable with very close quarters, we will have an opportunity to crawl through some of these tunnels, a unique experience indeed.

Following our visit to the tunnels, we travel through the countryside to a cricket farm. According to local lore, hungry soldiers ate them to supplement up their nutrient-poor diets, and today they are considered a delicacy. This afternoon we return to Ho Chi Minh City and the airport for our flight to Hué.

From 1802 to 1945, Hué was the country’s political capital under the Nguyen Dynasty’s thirteen emperors. Hué was caught in the crossfire during the years of the Vietnam War; the educated populace did not support the North nor the South, but still they suffered from their location between the two. Hué experienced great devastation when, during the 1968 Tet Offensive, the North Vietnamese held the city for nearly a month, using the ancient citadel as their base of operations. American soldiers fought to regain the city, but did so only after an estimated 10,000 people died (many of them Huế civilians) and the city’s many important historic cultural sites were destroyed. Restoration is steadily underway, and today you will find Huế to be a rather small and quiet town, especially in comparison to the northern and southern capitals of Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City.

Accommodation: Pilgrimage Village, Huế
Meals: B, L, D

DAY 3: Explore Hue

Activity Overview: Walking
Activity Level: Easy
Activity Length: 2 hours

Following breakfast this morning, we head to the ancient, walled Citadel and explore this former Imperial Palace. We learn about the Citadel’s intriguing architecture, inspired by Beijing’s Forbidden City. We then continue to Minh Mang Tomb to explore the opulent final resting place designed by the emperor himself.

For lunch, we go to Lien Hoa Pagoda, a temple located on the top of a hill with a fantastic view. We may visit the kitchen to see how food is prepared in a wood-burning stove, before joining the nuns for this special vegetarian meal. Over lunch we have the opportunity to learn about Buddhism and the nun’s daily lives.

Next, we make our way to Thanh Tien Village, well-known for its tradition of crafting paper flowers for more than three centuries. Those who would like to can learn from local villagers how to make an ornate paper flower. Our visit today supports the Backstreet Academy, a social enterprise providing struggling artists, craftsmen and home-based workers with additional income and recognition.

We return to Hue on a dragon boat ride, floating down the Perfume River. The evening is free to spend at your leisure. You may enjoy our accommodations and dine onsite, or take a complimentary shuttle into town for further independent exploration.

Accommodation: Pilgrimage Village, Huế
Meals: B, L

DAY 4: Transfer to Hoi An

Activity Overview: Walking
Activity Level: Easy
Activity Length: 1 hour walking; about 3 hours driving

This morning after breakfast, we transfer to Hoi An. En route, we ascend Hai Van Pass, with incredible views over the Lang Co Lagoon and the South China Sea. Just south of Danang, a major commercial center of Vietnam and sight of the largest American military base during the Vietnam War, we will stretch our legs at Marble Mountain and take a short climb up to see the shrines and limestone caves that blanket the hills.

We then continue to Hoi An, a picturesque town along the Thu Bon River. This exceptionally well-preserved example of a Southeast Asian trading port, dating from the 15th century, was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1999. Upon our arrival, we enjoy some regional specialties for lunch.
This afternoon, we have the unique opportunity learn a local craft. Under the instruction of Hoi An craftsmen, we practice the art of making lanterns from bamboo and silk. During the experience, we also have time to share tea and conversation with our hosts. These lanterns are visible at night along the Tu Bon River, and make a wonderful (and collapsible!) souvenir.

Accommodation: Anantara Resort, Hoi An
Meals: B, L, D

DAY 5: Biking Exploration

Activity Overview: Cycling and walking

Activity Level: Easy

Activity Length: 1 hour walking; 1 hour cycling

This morning following breakfast, we embark on a walking tour of Hoi An’s charming old town with its numerous historic houses, congregation halls, and pagodas. Both the buildings and street plan reflect varied influences—indigenous and foreign—that have combined to produce this unique city. Among our stops this afternoon will be the Museum of History and Culture, Tan Ky house, the Japanese Bridge, and the Fujian Assembly Hall. Hoi An is known for its extraordinary talent in tailoring, so we’ll also visit the local cloth market to witness this trade.

In the afternoon, a cycling tour in the nearby countryside gives us a sense of rural life. We head out toward Cam Thanh Village, a small community located in the outskirts of central Hoi An. At the village we have the opportunity to meet a local family, and visit their home. On the nearby river, we visit a water coconut forest by bamboo basket boat and then we return to Hoi An by river boat for lunch.

The evening will be yours to explore Hoi An, which is very festive at night, and you may enjoy dinner at one of the many wonderful restaurants in the Old Quarter.

Accommodations: Anantara Resort, Hoi An
Meals: B, L

DAY 6: Excursion to My Son Cham Ruins

Activity Overview: Walking and optional cooking class

Activity Level: Easy

Activity Length: 1-2 hours - walking

This morning we depart early by car to explore the ancient Cham ruins of My Son, about one hour outside of Hoi An. The Champa reigned over central Vietnam from the 2nd to 15th centuries and you can still see cultural influences of their kingdom today in pottery, fishing, and agricultural techniques, as well as in temple structures which embody influences from the Hindu traditions. Our bucolic drive will take us through the countryside outside of Hoi An. Although the temples of My Son are in relative disrepair, the partially overgrown vegetation encroaching on the temples actually adds to the mystique and intimate feel of the sight. We will have the chance to walk around for about an hour to take in the tranquil setting and learn about these ingenious and spiritual people.

We return to Hoi An in time for lunch, which you may enjoy on your own. This afternoon, we have some time for independent exploration to perhaps stroll the quaint markets, or take in the quaint ambience of Hoi An while enjoying drinks on one of the many balconies overlooking the Tu Bon River.

This evening we have the opportunity to participate in a cooking class. We begin at Hoi An’s colorful and bustling market, where we learn about the different uses of fresh noodles, how to recognize and buy fresh fish, herbs, spices, rice, and grains, while perhaps tasting some exotic fruits. After the chance to mingle with the vendors, we try our hand at preparing some Vietnamese dishes, and enjoy the final product for dinner.

Accommodations: Anantara Resort, Hoi An
Meals: B

DAY 7: Fly to Hanoi; City Walking Tour

Activity Overview: City walking tour

Activity Level: Easy

Activity Length: 3-4 hours

This morning we fly to Hanoi and embark on a walking tour of the city. We being at the presidential palace and stroll slowly down Phan Dinh Phung street, admiring the giant Sau trees and beautiful examples of French colonial architecture.
THE BOUNDLESS JOURNEYS DIFFERENCE

Ha Long Bay, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, calls for a relaxed exploration. Our overnight cruise on a small, luxury vessel allows for proper appreciation of this remarkable place.

architecture that line the boulevard. This is considered one of the most charming streets in the city.

Our first stop is Cua Bac Church. Built by the French, considered one of the more unusual churches in Vietnam, the architectural style combines Western architecture and oriental detailing. We then head to Hanoi’s Old Quarter, also known as the “36 Streets,” a bustling area of narrow alleys that is home to hundreds of small businesses and shopkeepers. Our guide brings us to visit the only family still producing traditional papier mache masks. Entirely handmade, this tradition dates back many centuries, however, it is now a dying art replaced with increasingly cheap and modern alternatives. From the lovely family who owns the workshop we hear stories of this unique art and their struggle to keep the tradition alive.

We continue our discovery of the hidden alleyways and head through the labyrinth of back alleys, peering into temples and traditional houses, passing through markets and by street sellers as our guide shares the stories and introduces us to the people who call this fascinating city home.

Following a stop at Bach Ma Temple, one of the oldest in Hanoi, we continue to Ta Hien and wrap up our walk with another drink at a café overlooking St Joseph’s Cathedral - a symbol of Vietnam’s French history.

Accommodations: Sofitel Legend Metropole, Hanoi
Meals: B, L

Activity Overview: Walking on city streets
Activity Level: Easy
Activity Length: 2 hours

This morning following breakfast, we explore the many historic and cultural sites of Hanoi. The Presidential Palace where Ho Chi Minh lived and worked from 1954 to 1969 will be our first stop. Originally the home of the Governor General of Indochina, the immaculate grounds became the center of revolutionary activity once North Vietnam achieved independence in 1954. Ho Chi Minh opted not to move into the palace at that time, believing it belonged to the North Vietnamese people, and instead lived in the neighboring “House on Stilts.” Here, the revered “Uncle Ho” worked amid the gardens, mango alley, and carp-filled pond. The whole structure has been preserved in perfect condition, a tribute to the well-loved leader.

Next, we visit the One Pillar Pagoda and the Temple of Literature. Built after King Lý Thái Tông’s vision of a bodhisattva seated on a lotus flower in 1049, the lotus-shaped One Pillar Pagoda sits atop a pillar jutting out of a lily pond. Soon after the temple was built, the King’s wife gave birth to a son, and today childless couples visit the pagoda to make prayer offerings. The Temple of Literature is perhaps Hanoi’s best-preserved ancient site. Also built in the 11th century, Van Mieu, as it is known in Vietnamese, served as the national university for 700 years.

This afternoon we have time to walk around Hoan Kiem Lake and enjoy some independent exploration or relaxation. For those who are interested, there will also be plenty of opportunities to purchase handicrafts to take home.

This evening we enjoy a traditional Vietnamese water puppet show at the Thang Long Opera House.

DAY 8: Sights of Hanoi
This morning after breakfast, we transfer to Ha Long Bay, either by road (approximately 3-4 hours) or seaplane (optional at an additional cost). Ha Long Bay, in the Gulf of Tonkin, includes some 1,600 islands and islets, forming a spectacular seascape of limestone pillars. In 1994, this unique landscape was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Upon arrival you will board a deluxe Asian “junk” boat for a two-day trip through the bay.

We enjoy a lunch of Asian-fusion specialties on board while sailing into the bay, soaking up the scenic views and unwinding for the last leg of our journey. Various excursions are available including a visit to Tien Ong Cave. The Cave is peppered with beautiful stalactites and stalagmites, formed out of ancient limestone karsts about 700,000 years ago. The voyage continues with an excursion to the floating fishing village of Cua Van, the largest and oldest fishing village in Ha Long Bay. Once we are back on board, there will also be a cooking demonstration by the ship’s chef to reveal some of the secrets of Vietnamese cuisine.

This evening, we enjoy the sunset from the deck before an elegant five-course dinner in the restaurant. Afterward, you can relax on the deck and socialize with other travelers before retiring to your cabin.

DAY 10: Ha Long Bay

Activity Overview: Optional Tai Chi lesson, optional hike
Activity Level: Easy
Activity Length: About 1 hour - Tai Chi; 30 minutes - hike

Early risers will be treated to ideal light for photographs, and perhaps join other guests on deck for a morning Tai Chi lesson. After breakfast, we continue our cruise through the unforgettable landscape, stopping at one of the most spectacular beaches – Ti Top – where you are free to disembark and hike up 400 steps for a panoramic view of the bay, or simply relax and enjoy the beach.

We disembark the cruise by midday, and return to Hanoi by road, where we will say farewell and depart for our onward journey.

TRIP RATING
Boundless Journeys’ trips are designed for energetic and flexible individuals who like to be active and have a spirit of adventure and a positive attitude. Vietnam: Cultural Explorer is rated 1+, easy with some moderate options on a scale of 1-5 (with 5 being the most strenuous). The walks on this trip are day walks with some vehicle support. Much of the walking done on this tour will be on flat terrain, in and around villages, towns, and temples, 2-3 hours per day, broken up by rest and meals.

PREPARING FOR THIS TRIP
It is important that you realistically assess your physical condition with regard to the demands of this trip. The more well-prepared you are for the activities on this trip, the more you will enjoy yourself! Please engage in moderate aerobic activities (walking, jogging, or cycling) for at least 30-45 minutes several times a week for 4-6 weeks before the trip. If you live in a flat area, try to incorporate some stairs into your workout, or use a treadmill with varying incline capability. Consult your doctor before undertaking any new fitness programs.

WEATHER
During our trip, you will likely experience a range of weather conditions, as various locations fall within different climate zones. While Hanoi will be relatively cool, Ho Chi Minh City will be warmer. Rain is possible at any time, although most of the rain falls from May-September. You can obtain more detailed weather information at www.weatherbase.com.

WHEN TO GO
The cooler dry season lasts from October to March (although October can still see considerable rain). In November, arriving just after the rainy season, you’ll have the benefit of being there for the newly greened trees and rice paddies, as well as the much clearer air quality that can be expected at this time of year. December through March remain much drier and a bit cooler than during the summer months. However, it is possible to have some rain at any time of year.

TRAVELER’S RESPONSIBILITY
Trip participants have certain responsibilities to both Boundless Journeys and your fellow travelers. This includes understanding the conditions described in the trip itinerary and making sure it is appropriate for your interests and abilities, based on a review of the trip ratings, a consultation with Boundless Journeys’ staff, and perhaps your doctor. In addition, trip participants are responsible for preparing for a trip by undertaking the proper fitness training. At the guide’s discretion, a participant may be asked to leave the trip if the guide feels that the person’s further participation may be detrimental to the individual or to other trip participants. If you have any questions about the difficulty level of the trip you have chosen, please contact Boundless Journeys to speak with one of our Destination Managers.
SMALL GROUP TRAVEL

Small group travel affords us the opportunity to seek out the most remote and exotic destinations on the planet. Often we are exploring these locales with just 6-12 guests. The nature of active group travel is such that not all participants have the same ability level or interests. Traveling at a pace that is comfortable for the entire group, with a spirit of flexibility and adventure, are all part of this shared experience.

DRINKS WITH MEALS

At Boundless Journeys we believe group dinners are a time to celebrate our day, while enjoying the best of local cuisine, and good company. In keeping with this spirit, we typically include local beer and wine with group dinners. If you prefer premium wine, or liquor, please feel free to order what you like, and you may settle your tab at the end of the meal.

DRINKING WATER

We provide purified or bottled water on all trips; however, in an effort to reduce waste, we strongly encourage you to bring a water bottle to refill where safe to do so. This will be the case in much of Europe, as well as a few other destinations, where tap water is safe to drink (please review Immunizations & Health Concerns for more information). In parts of the world where water must be purified, bottled water may be our only option. Here, we do our best to provide purified water from larger containers to refill your bottles, rather than using many small single-use bottles throughout your trip. This is just one small way we strive to travel more responsibly and we appreciate your efforts in helping us to protect the extraordinary places we visit.

Boundless Journeys has taken the Travelers Against Plastic company pledge to promote sustainable travel and encourage travelers to avoid buying bottled water when they travel. You can take the pledge, too, and learn more about TAP’s efforts at www.travelersagainstplastic.org.

CUISINE

The ingredients and flavors of cuisine in Vietnam are complex and vary, as everything else does, according to its region of northern, central, or southern Vietnam. In Hanoi you may notice a bit of Chinese influence in the food, along with the inevitable French offerings. A bowl of pho in the Old Quarter is a must; this hot soup is hearty, with noodles and bean sprouts, chicken, pork, or beef, and fresh herbs and spices for flavoring. In central Vietnam, on the coast, seafood is abundant and the food tends to have a bit more chili-derived heat. To a large extent, you have the opportunity to dictate the flavors of your food, as dipping sauces and condiments are yours for the taking. Please note that everywhere we travel, you are likely to find some Western dishes that are familiar should you need a bit of comfort food.

Please inform us of any specific dietary restrictions by completing your Smartwaiver form, and we will do our best to accommodate you. Please call our office with any questions or concerns about our ability to meet your needs.
OUR GUIDES

With a Boundless Journeys guide, your experience is that of friend and local adventurer. We believe strongly in working with local guides, experts in the areas to which we travel, and they hold the keys to unlocking the hidden delights of your chosen destination. Although you will never know they are at work—the mark of a truly great leader—our guides make magical things happen and add a dimension to your trip that you could not experience on your own.

Over the years we have forged bonds with some of the best guides in the world, and we typically work with a small team of guides in each region. You will be informed of the guide for your trip one month prior to your departure. Here are some of the guides we work with in Vietnam.

DOI VAN HOI
Hoi’s love of sharing his homeland with others and his passion for travel led him to a career in guiding. He came to Hanoi initially to study sustainable tourism and has stayed for over 15 years building on his guiding experience and connecting with thousands of travelers.

Along with his deep knowledge of the various histories and cultures of all the regions of Vietnam, his light-hearted attitude and spontaneous spirit make him a joy to travel with. We love having him as a trusted partner in Vietnam!

SON TO LAKI
Laki was born in southern Vietnam’s Mekong Delta and pursued a career in guiding because he loves sharing and teaching about his homeland. Laki’s deep knowledge of the various histories of South, Central, and North Vietnam, a keen sense of humor, and a love of adventure, have made him one of the most sought-out and highly-respected guides in the region for nearly a decade. In addition to leading active tours, Laki enjoys cycling and a good book.

Guests love his friendly demeanor and ability to make each day of the tour unforgettable!

RESPONSIBLE TRAVEL
At Boundless Journeys we are committed to exploring the world in a responsible way and continually seek ways to tread lightly across the unique landscapes and diverse cultures on this planet. Here are just some of the ways we aim to travel responsibly:

MAKING CONNECTIONS
On some of our trips, our guests have the opportunity to visit organizations working to protect the environment and improve the livelihoods of local communities. Whether it is bathing elephants at a conservation center in Myanmar, or enjoying a farm-fresh meal at a family-owned organic farm in Costa Rica, our guests form meaningful connections with the people and places they visit.

GOING LOCAL
Whenever possible, we use small, locally operated hotels that have sound environmental practices; groups dine at restaurants that feature fresh and authentic regional cuisine; we choose partners that strive for the highest standard of responsible practices; and we employ local guides and support local economies.

CONSERVING WILD PLACES
On many of our trips, we explore stunning natural landscapes where conservation is of the utmost importance. As visitors, we not only tread lightly, but actively contribute to the conservation of parks and protected areas.

LOOKING FOR INSPIRATION?
Here are just a few examples - one more involved, and one quite simple - of how our travelers give back to the places they have explored with us:

- The Botswana School Project was created in 2012 by Boundless Journeys guests who saw that there was a need for books, supplies, and computers in schools they visited in northern Botswana.
- A Bhutan guest donated baby outfits to families she met on mountain trails and in rural communities and schools.
- Two sisters who traveled to Peru donated school supply kits to a local school we visit on our Sacred Valley & Machu Picchu tour.
