How we deliver

THE WORLD'S GREAT ADVENTURES

A passion for travel. Simply put, we love to travel, and that infectious spirit is woven into every one of our journeys. Our staff travels the globe searching out hidden-gem inns and lodges, taste testing bistros, trattorias, and noodle stalls, and discovering the trails and plying the waterways of each remarkable destination. When we come home, we separate wheat from chaff, creating memorable adventures that will connect you with the very best qualities of each destination.

Unique, award-winning itineraries. Our flexible, hand-crafted journeys have received accolades from the world's most revered travel publications. Beginning from our appreciation for the world's most breathtaking and interesting destinations, we infuse our journeys with the elements of adventure and exploration that stimulate our souls and enliven our minds. Whether you are looking for a challenging physical expedition or a leisurely cultural exploration, Boundless Journeys has exceptional itineraries to match your sense of adventure.

Insider connections. There is simply no substitute for traveling with a knowledgeable insider, and our expert local guides will open doors for you that other travelers miss, like dinner with their extended family in Peru's Sacred Valley, or meeting an art scholar in Florence. Relationships developed over many years allow you to experience our destinations through a well-connected friend.

Small groups. Although the camaraderie of a group of like-minded travelers often enhances the journey, there can be too much of a good thing! We tread softly, and our average group size is just 8–10 guests, allowing us access to opportunities that would be unthinkable with a larger group.

Flexibility to suit your travel style. We offer both scheduled, small-group departures and custom journeys so that you can choose which works best for you. Not finding exactly what you are looking for? Let us customize a journey to fulfill your travel dreams.

Customer service that goes the extra mile. Having trouble finding flights that work for you? Want to surprise your traveling companion with a bottle of champagne at a tented camp in the Serengeti to celebrate an important milestone? There is no request that is too big—or too small—for our staff to handle. From your first call, we guide you through choosing your trip, provide advice on preparing for your adventure, and hold your hand until you return home.

You will be assisted through immigration, baggage claim, and customs and then transferred to your accommodations for the next three nights—a luxury boutique hotel located on its own private quay just steps from the Victoria & Alfred Waterfront area.

Accommodation: Cape Grace Hotel, Cape Town

Meals: None

DAY 2: Cape Town and Table Mountain

Activity Overview: Walking

Activity Level: Easy

Activity Length: 3-4 hours

This morning, you meet your guide and depart the hotel to explore Cape Town. We explore the city primarily on foot while learning about its history, people, and cuisine.

Along the way, we encounter Cape Town's contemporary charms as well. From creative new restaurants to craft shops, the opportunities to complement learning about the history of Cape Town are always evolving. We explore a variety of hidden gems while tasting plenty of delicious local food along the way.

This afternoon, if weather permits we ride the revolving aerial cable car up Table Mountain, where we can walk along its flat top and enjoy sweeping views of the city and coastline below. Table Mountain has its own weather, however, with frequent cloud cover known locally as the “tablecloth.” If we are unable to reach the top today, we have another chance tomorrow.

The Table Mountain Cable car typically closes for annual maintenance for about two weeks from late July-early August.

Accommodation: Cape Grace Hotel, Cape Town

Meals: B, L

DAY 3: The Cape Peninsula

Activity Overview: Walking on trails

Activity Level: Easy

Activity Length: 2-3 hours

Today, we explore the beautiful coastline of Cape Town, beginning at the beaches of Clifton and Camps Bay and heading toward the furthest reaches of Table Mountain National Park—the Cape Peninsula. Our route takes us past the fishing town of Hout Bay along the spectacular Chapman's Peak drive and onto the peninsula.

We arrive at the two endpoints of the peninsula: the Cape of Good Hope and Cape Point with its iconic lighthouse. At the Cape of Good Hope Nature Reserve, we ride the funicular and take in sweeping views of False Bay, the mountains to the north, and the meeting point of the Atlantic and Indian Oceans to the south.

As we return to Cape Town, we pass Boulders Beach and stop (as many do!) for a brief visit with its famously well-dressed inhabitants, the African penguins. This endangered species has seen recent success at Boulders Beach, where just a few breeding pairs have now flourished to about 3,000 birds today. The beach is protected from human use, but boardwalks along the rocky shore allow us to photograph and observe these entertaining animals.

The remainder of the afternoon and evening is at your leisure to enjoy exploring the neighborhood surrounding our hotel.

Accommodation: Cape Grace Hotel, Cape Town

Meals: B, L

DAY 4: The Cape Winelands

Activity Overview: Walking on trails

Activity Level: Easy

Activity Length: 2-3 hours

After breakfast, we check out of our hotel and set off to explore the winelands of Stellenbosch in South Africa's famed wine region. Our wine-tasting and walking stops today showcase the spectacular beauty of this area.

Our first stop is Waterford Estate, set on hundreds of acres that are home to diverse indigenous wildlife, stunning views reminiscent of the Spanish countryside, and trails set among vineyards and citrus groves. We take a light picnic and selection of wines along to taste while out exploring. We top it off with a tasting of chocolates paired with wine back at the Estate.

Our next stop is Tokara, where in addition to wines and brandy, there are olive oils to taste and a fine art gallery to peruse. We enjoy a leisurely lunch here before our last stop at a wine farm in the picturesque Franschhoek Valley. At Le Lude, the Barrow family practices the technique of Cap Classique—crafting naturally bottle-fermented sparkling wines. We sample a few favorites before heading to our accommodations for the evening.

Accommodation: Le Quartier Français, Franschhoek

Meals: B, L

DAY 5: Greater Kruger Private Reserves

Activity Overview: afternoon game drive

Activity Level: Easy

Activity Length: 2-3 hours

This morning, we have an early departure for the Cape Town airport to board our flight (about 2.5 hours) to Skukuza, where we begin our wildlife safari.

South Africa's flagship national park, Kruger, is renowned for epic Big Five game viewing. Over the past few decades, the park's fences have come down, allowing wildlife to move freely into adjacent private reserves, where one can enjoy all of the wildlife found in Kruger with none of the crowds. The Sabi Sands Wildtuin is the most famous collection of private reserves that comprise the Greater Kruger area. But there are other excellent options, from Thornybush to the Timbavati, should availability in the Sabi Sands be challenging.

By the afternoon, we find ourselves exploring a completely different world: South Africa's lowveld, filled with a wide array of wildlife. With a blend of riverine forest and open savannah, these reserves are prime habitat for cheetah and white rhino populations and is also home to a great diversity

WHAT TO EXPECT

TRIP RATING

Boundless Journeys' trips are designed for energetic and flexible individuals who like to be active and have a spirit of adventure and a positive attitude. Ultimate Cape Town & Kruger Safari is rated 1+, easy with moderate options, on a scale of 1-5 (with 5 being the most strenuous). Our primary activities require little aerobic fitness, but some agility for getting in and out of vehicles, and walking and light hiking through uneven terrain. This trip can be enjoyed by anyone who is in reasonably good health.

We may have opportunities for optional nature walks on occasion, but this is determined by wildlife activity and country regulations. NOTE: These optional walks are at your own risk, and can take you close to potentially dangerous wild animals.

PREPARING FOR THIS TRIP

It is very important that you realistically assess your physical condition with regard to the demands of this trip. The more well-prepared you are for the activities, the more you will enjoy yourself. If you plan to fully partake in the options for walking and hiking around Cape Town, we suggest that you engage in easy to moderate aerobic activities (such as walking, hiking, jogging, or cycling) for at least 30-45 minutes several times a week for 4-6 weeks before the trip. If you live in a flat area, try to incorporate some stairs into your workout, or use a treadmill with varying incline capability (consult your doctor before undertaking any new fitness program). Please contact us if you have any doubts regarding your physical match with this tour.

THE SAFARI EXPERIENCE

The primary activity while in the private reserve is game driving. The wildlife is typically most active early in the morning and late in the afternoon (these times also provide the best light for photography), and therefore we plan our activities accordingly. Typically, we awake early in the morning for a light breakfast before heading out on a morning drive as the sun rises. We proceed slowly, and even when animals are not present, the landscape and sounds of the bush are entrancing. We spend a few hours exploring and observing animals at watering holes or on the move from one region to another. As we come upon groups of animals, we allow plenty of time to simply observe and also take photographs. The safari guides are experienced naturalists and will add greatly to your understanding of the animals. We keep a respectful distance—although the same cannot always be said about the animals, and it is not unusual to come nose-to-vehicle with baboons, zebras, giraffe, big cats, and elephants. Some days, it may be possible to explore the area on foot in the company of a qualified walking guide.

By mid-morning, we usually return to camp where we have a few hours of down time, enjoying the amenities of the lodge, resting, birdwatching, taking photos, or perhaps reading about the region you are visiting.

In the afternoon, we gather for hors d'oeuvres and drinks before heading out for the afternoon activity. "Sundowners"—a light snack and cocktails in the bush—are an African safari tradition, and a great way to enjoy unforgettable African sunsets. We then make our way back to camp, sometimes driving with a spotlight to look for nocturnal animals.

In the evenings, dinner is usually enjoyed with the rest of the guests in camp and may vary from seated meals ordered from the daily menu to dining in the camp boma (a traditional protected outdoor dining area).

WEATHER

The winter season in South Africa is generally April-October and mornings and evenings in the Kruger area can be chilly, occasionally even dropping below freezing. Days are normally sunny and pleasant with occasional cold snaps and almost no rain. Cape Town can experience sunny (but generally cool) weather during this period, or clouds and occasional rains.

You may obtain more detailed weather information on www.weatherbase.com.

WHEN TO GO

The high season for safaris in South Africa is during the dry season in the lowveld, where Kruger and the adjacent private reserves are located. The dry season typically goes from May-September, when little or no rain falls. By traveling during this time, you will enjoy easy wildlife viewing with shorter grasses and foliage off the trees. This is also a nice time to visit Cape Town as sporadic showers leave waterfalls cascading down the slopes of Table Mountain and there are fewer visitors about than during the summer months of December-March when many locals take their holiday. If you prefer warmer temperatures, and the prospect of lots of baby animals, then traveling during the summer "green" season from November-March is suggested.

TRAVELER'S RESPONSIBILITY

Trip participants have certain responsibilities to both Boundless Journeys and your fellow travelers. This includes understanding the conditions described in the trip itinerary and making sure it is appropriate for your interests and abilities, based on a review of the trip ratings, consultation with Boundless Journeys' staff, and perhaps your doctor. In addition, trip participants are responsible for preparing for a trip by undertaking the proper fitness training. At the guide's discretion, a participant may be asked to leave the trip if the guide feels that the person's further participation may be detrimental to the individual or to other trip participants. If you have any questions about the difficulty level of the trip you have chosen, please contact Boundless Journeys to speak with one of our Destination Managers.

OUR GUIDES

With a Boundless Journeys guide, your experience is that of friend and local adventurer. We believe strongly in working with local guides, experts in the areas to which we travel, and they hold the keys to unlocking the hidden delights of your chosen destination. Although you will never know they are at work – the mark of a truly great leader – our guides make magical things happen and add a dimension to your trip that you could not experience on your own. Over the years we have forged bonds with some of the best guides in the world, and we typically work with a small team of guides in each region. While on safari, you will join one of the guides at the lodge, and activities may be shared with other travelers if you have fewer than 6 in your group.

DRINKING WATER

We provide purified or bottled water on all trips; however, in an effort to reduce waste, we strongly encourage you to bring a water bottle to refill where safe to do so. In developed areas of South Africa, tap water is safe to drink, although there may be minerals present that your body is not accustomed to. In parts of the world where water must be purified, bottled water may be our only option. Here, we do our best to provide purified water from larger containers to refill your bottles, rather than using many small single-use bottles throughout your trip. This is just one small way we strive to travel more responsibly and we appreciate your efforts in helping us to protect the extraordinary places we visit.

Boundless Journeys has taken the Travelers Against Plastic company pledge to promote sustainable travel and encourage travelers to avoid buying bottled water when they travel. You can take the pledge, too, and learn more about TAP's efforts at www.travelersagainstoplastic.org.

CUISINE

Today's South African cuisine is the result of a blend of influences from nearly every part of the world. Traditional African dishes have evolved along with Indian and European cooking to create a vibrant variety of tastes for the inquisitive traveler. Beef, pork, and chicken are the basis of most main dishes, with occasional opportunities to try indigenous meats like farm-raised springbok (a game meat similar to venison). Seafood may also be available, especially along the coast. From dinner at an award-winning restaurant in Cape Town to festive meals in the lodge boma, great cuisine is an essential part of the experience when traveling in South Africa.

Please inform us of specific dietary restrictions by completing your guest paperwork and we will do our best to accommodate you. Please call our office if you have any questions about our ability to meet your needs.

TRANSPORTATION

In Cape Town, our transportation consists of a mid-sized touring van, with large windows for good views. In the game reserve, transportation is provided in open-sided safari vehicles.

BOUNDLESS BEYOND

RESPONSIBLE TRAVEL

At Boundless Journeys, our goal is to create meaningful experiences that protect the delicate ecosystems and attributes of every location we visit. We aim to educate our guests on the best responsible travel practices for each destination.

WE ARE COMMITTED TO

Making connections. Our local guides offer insider knowledge of their country, including tips on etiquette and customs. They facilitate meaningful interactions with the people and places we visit, such as dinner at the home of a local family. While you may arrive in a destination as a visitor, you leave with a deeper understanding and connection to each place.

Going local. Boundless Journeys' small group size stems from a desire to provide a more intimate traveler experience, giving us the freedom to move through the tight alleys of old towns on foot, eat and sleep at traditional guesthouses, participate in immersive cultural exchanges, and leave a smaller footprint on all of the locales we visit. This mobility allows us to support local economies directly, forging strong relationships with our partners and friends abroad as we return year after year.

Respecting people and the environment. We support organizations working to protect ecosystems and improve the livelihoods of local communities. On many of our trips, we explore stunning natural landscapes where conservation is of the utmost importance. As visitors, we practice Leave No Trace ethics and actively contribute to the conservation of parks and protected areas.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Give back. Instead of receiving a Boundless Journeys t-shirt or water bottle, you can opt to donate the value of your gift to our travel scholarship fund, which will be awarded to a local student for an educational or service-based travel opportunity.

Learn more. Visit boundlessjourneys.com/responsible-travel to read more about how our values are reflected in our trip offerings. We also offer a selection of Resources for the Responsible Traveler, which suggests ways to tread lightly and ensure your journey has a positive impact.

Join us. Boundless Journeys has taken the Travelers Against Plastic company pledge to promote sustainable travel and encourage travelers to avoid buying bottled water when they travel. You can take the pledge at travelersagainstplastic.org.

CONSERVATION IN ACTION

Boundless Journeys is a proud member of the Adventure Travel and Trade Association, a global network of adventure seekers who believe in the protection and promotion of local communities and wilderness areas.
